We offer a 5% discount for payment at the time of treatment or prior to our invoice run on the 25th of the month. This discount is applicable to most treatment items however it does not extend to some products, e.g. Gastrogard or to any outside professional fees.

Payment of invoices is due within 14 days of the date of the invoice.

We will charge 1.5% interest per month compound, on balances remaining unpaid 30 days after the invoicing period.

Non-payment after 90 days may result in court action.

In giving instructions, either in person or by your agent, for an animal to be treated, you will be responsible for our charges. Whenever possible we will give you an estimate of the cost of treatment, however, variations and complications may arise resulting in further costs being incurred.

In hospitalised cases which are not insured, payment should be made on collection of the horse, unless there is a prior arrangement.

To avoid extra administration charges, purchases of less than £5.00 must be paid for at the time of supply.

There are occasions on which we incur costs on your behalf, such as tests performed at outside laboratories; these may be invoiced to you at a later date.

In addition to our fees we will charge for expenses and disbursements (such as for medication) we incur on your behalf. We have no obligation to incur such expenses or disbursements unless funds have been provided by you for that purpose. VAT is payable on certain expenses and disbursements.

Failure to comply with payment terms may result in our insisting that further treatment be paid for at the time.

New clients:

We accept new clients on a cash only basis for the first 3 months and/or until an acceptable credit rating has been established. In order to establish an acceptable credit rating we will perform a credit check and by accepting these Terms & Conditions you are giving your consent for us to do so.

Details, including relevant medical history, may be obtained from the previous attending Veterinary surgeon, unless we are advised otherwise by you.

We aim to offer all clients a professional, friendly and efficient service and we hope you will be pleased with the work we do for you. However, if any difficulty should arise, please first raise the matter with the person responsible for carrying out the work on behalf of the firm and, failing that it would be appropriate to refer the matter in writing to one of the Directors.
